At the trial Messrs......Potter McKeague, Mehrtens, Albert Smith and th man himself, testified as to his sobriety and also to his ill-usage. Messrs. D. McCart ney and George W. Smith, of the firm of Benso mith & Co., testified to the man's characte for sobriety and particularly that he was seen and interviewed by them immediately prior to the arrest, and that then he was perfectly sober Mr. Emmeluth testified as to Mr. Ebelling general character for sobriety, and that he ha worked for him during the day in question and that then was sober. The policemen, how ever, who made the arrest both testified tha Mr. Ebelling appeared drunk at the time of the arrest, and brought two other policemen and a back-driver to corroborate the evidence they gave. The policemen, however, were fourni guilty as charged and fined $10 each.

An appeal has been taken to the intermediar court. Muli has been discharged from the force,' but Kauhane been retained on ac ount of his alleged previous good character. Mr. W. O. Smith was engaged by Mr. Ebel ting to assist in the prosecution. The prisoner
